"In a plantation house, the members of the family are celebrating the sixty-fifth birthday of the Big Daddy, as they sentimentally dub him. The tone is gay. But the mood is somber. For a number of old evils poison the gaiety of the past, greedy hopes for the future, a desperate eagerness not to believe in the truths that surround them.... As theatre, it is superb." --New York Times

2017—Our 60th Anniversary Season!

Dear friends of The Brookfield Theatre for the Arts (TBTA),

We are so excited to share with you our plans for our 60th Anniversary as Brookfield’s community theater! Our shows have been chosen to honor our past, celebrate the present, and share a vision of our future as a creative arts organization. We will begin the season with a show that speaks to the founding of our theater: Cat On A Hot Tin Roof by Tennessee Williams. Our summer show is the 1957 Tony award winning musical—the year we were founded—Damn Yankees! Our two dramas are contemporary plays on historic themes. The first is a difficult and moving drama about the Holocaust Bent and the second is the political drama Frost Nixon. We complete our 60th anniversary year with Noises Off, the hilarious send-up of the trials and tribulations of theater life. In addition to our FIVE main season shows, we will also present many special events including improv comedy, staged readings, and a festival of new musicals curated by author Carol DeGiere! Our offerings have been chosen to ensure a wide range of appeal. As a non-profit, all volunteer community theatre, we rely on the support of businesses and individuals who share our passion for the arts and our commitment to providing quality programs at affordable prices.
