

13. DRACULA MONOLOGUE | Act 2, Scene 8, p 111-113

DRACULA comes to [Renfield's] bars. Lines removed for the purpose of audition material.

DRACULA Free?

You wish to become like me, Renfield?

You have not been useful!

Not as you should have been!

Shhh.

Listen carefully now, Renfield.

You are not my child.

I am not your Father.

You were my servant.

And you fell short.

You were tested.

And you failed.

You could not finish my business.

You could not spread my word in this new land.

Your vessel is too weak.

So eat all the crawling creatures you want—

You will creep no higher than they do.

Renfield— you were never good enough.

DRACULA, very casually, throws the rope from Jonathan's hands down, just by her cell bars.

Free yourself.
